

EXHIBIT B: Map of proposed project sites where the effects of seagrass on estuarine acidification in natural and restored seagrass beds across California will be quantified. This will inform an assessment of where seagrass restoration and conservation can be applied to ameliorate local ocean acidification.

