

Exhibit C: Pictures of Collaborative Members and Previously Funded Projects

Catalina Collaborative members participate in MPA Watch, a citizen science program that collects data on coastal resource use.

Los Angeles Collaborative members pose next to a newly installed MPA informational sign.

Mendocino Collaborative members and partners from allied agencies participate in an MPA enforcement training.

San Diego Collaborative members install an MPA informational sign at San Elijo Lagoon in north county San Diego.